

Aliette Rodz is a shareholder in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Group and Chair of the Cuba Task Force.

Aliette has been recognized by South Florida Business Leaders, is a recipient of the Women Extraordinaire award and a finalist of Businesswomen of the Year; and she has received recognition from Outstanding Lawyers of Miami-Dade County. Aliette counsels businesses facing legal challenges to compete in the global economy. She advocates for U.S. and foreign companies and institutions in national and international disputes in court or through alternative resolutions.

Outside of her practice, Aliette is dedicated to supporting women in business and numerous nonprofit organizations. She is the Chair and one of the pioneers of the firm's Focus on Women Group and is a longtime supporter of The Commonwealth Institute for Women and Casa Valentina, as well as organizations such as Educate Tomorrow, which serves foster youth. She is a board member of the Ladies Empowerment and Action Program, Inc. (L.E.A.P.), a non-profit organization that empowers and educates women to make positive life changes transcending into the business community after prison. She is also on the Executive Leadership Team of the American Heart and Stroke Association and is currently serving as Chair of the 11th Judicial Circuit's Florida Bar Grievance Committee. Aliette is also is a board member of Zoo Miami Foundation.